OF THE
ORPHAN ASYLUM SOCIETY
OF THE
CITY OF BROOKLYN.

ARTICLE I.

THIS Society shall be known by the name of the ORPHAN ASYLUM SOCIETY OF THE CITY OF BROOKLYN, and its object, as expressed in the Act incorporating the Society, is to protect, relieve and instruct Orphans and Destitute Children in the City of Brooklyn.

ARTICLE II.

Any person contributing annually to the funds of the Society, and whose name shall be registered or entered as such contributor by the Recording Secretary, shall for the time being, and until such contribution is discontinued, or on request of payment declined, be a member of this Society, and entitled to all the rights and privileges of an original member. A contribution of twenty-five dollars shall constitute the contributor a member for life. Any person contributing at one time to the funds of the Asylum one hundred dollars, or who shall have been an officer of the Society for ten or more years, shall be constituted an Honorary member of the Society.

ARTICLE III.

The business of the Society shall be conducted by a Board of Managers, consisting of a First and Second Directress, a Corresponding and Recording Secretary, a Treasurer, and forty or more Managers, who shall be chosen annually by the Society, and who shall have the power of filling all vacancies which may occur in the Board during the year for which they are chosen ; also of appointing twelve gentlemen to act as a Board of Advisors, and to assist in raising funds.

ARTICLE IV.

The Annual Meeting shall be held on the THIRD WEDNESDAY OF MAY in each year, at such hour and place, and be conducted in such manner as the Board of Managers shall from time to time designate and prescribe ; and at such meeting or in case the same shall, from any cause, not have been held on that day, then at such other time and place as the Board may for that purpose appoint, (and which, in such case, shall be appointed for an early day as shall be conveniently practicable,) the Officers and Managers for the ensuing year shall be chosen, and they shall, in all cases, continue in office until others are chosen in their stead.

ARTICLE V.

The First Directress shall preside at all meetings, both of the Society and of the Board of Managers, preserve order, state questions for decision, and declare the result ; and when the meetings is equally divided on any question, she shall have the casting vote.

ARTICLE VI.

The duties of the First Directress shall, in case of her absence, devolve on and be performed by the Second Directress. In case of the absence of both, a Manager, chosen by the meeting, shall preside.

ARTICLE VII.

The Recording Secretary shall give due notice of all the meetings of the Society, and of the Board of Managers; attend the meetings of the same, and record their proceedings

ARTICLE VIII.

At the opening of every meeting, the minutes of the last meeting shall be read by the Secretary, and submitted to the Board for approval.

ARTICLE IX.

ARTICLE X.

The Treasurer shall take charge of all moneys collected or received for the Society; make all disbursements ordered by the Board of Managers; attend their meetings; report at the monthly meetings the amount of receipts and payments; also make a report at the annual meeting of the Society of the receipts and expenditures of the preceeding year, and keep a record of the names of all donors and subscribers.

ARTICLE XI.

The Board of Managers shall meet once a month to attend to all matters of business relating to the Institution. Five Managers attending any meeting regularly convened, shall be competent to transact all business, except the adoption, repeal or modification of any By-Law, or recommendation of any amendment of the Constitution, in which excepted cases there must be fifteen Managers present. The Board shall have power to declare vacant the office of any manager, or any other member of the Board, who shall have neglected to attend monthly meetings of the Board for six consecutive months, or shall have otherwise failed to perform the duties of a member, without sufficient cause reported to the Board. It also shall have power to fill all vacancies that may occur in the Board, to have effect until the next annual election, but this shall be done only upon notice at a previous meeting and reference to a committee to report thereon. It also shall be the duty of the Board to employ a Matron and Teacher, and such subordinate assistants as may be necessary, and to establish By-Laws, Rules and Regulations, from time to time as they shall deem most conducive to the welfare of the Institution.

The Managers shall, in rotation, visit the Asylum weekly, to supervise the general household management, the health of the children, and the course of instruction, and make report thereon at every monthly meeting.

ARTICLE XII.

An Executive Committee shall be appointed to consist of twelve members, including the 1st and 2d Directress, who shall be ex-officio members. Vacancies, by resignations or otherwise, shall be filled by the Board of Managers upon notice at a previous meeting.

It shall be the special duty of the Executive Committee to attend to the receiving of children into the Asylum, and binding out or dismissing them; they shall make inquiry into the circumstances of children offered for admission and shall also inquire as to their condition after having been bound out. As soon as their age and acquirements shall, in the opinion of the Board of Managers, render them capable of earning their living, they shall severally be bound out to some respectable person or family, for such object and upon such arrangements as the Board may approve, pursuant to the provisions of the Act in relation to the subject.

ARTICLE XV.

The Constitution may be altered or amended on the recommendation of the Board of Managers, as their experience and the future circumstances of the Institution may render necessary or expedient, at any annual meeting of the Society, or at any other meeting SPECIALLY called for the purpose; provided, in the latter case, that the alterations or amendment intended to be proposed shall be specified in the notice by which such meeting shall be convened.

ANNUAL REPORT.

At present there are one hundred and twenty-four (124) children in the Asylum. Seventy-four have been admitted, fifty-four discharged, two have died—in all, one hundred and seventy-nine have been in this Institution the last year; thirteen have been sent West under the care of Mr. Brace, of the New York Children's Aid Society. Those who accompanied Mr. Brace have all found good homes, and some have been adopted. We strongly advocate sending them to the West, as we constantly receive letters from the children, stating their happiness, and urging others to join them in their pleasant homes. We are also the recipient of numerous letters from parties taking our children, who speak of them as "sunbeams in their midst," and thank God for directing them to their care and guidance.

Two children only have died; one a little boy four years of age, who had convulsions, and died after a brief illness. The other was Willie Clark, aged ten years. He passed from earth through much tribulation, was "made perfect through suffering." In this Institution he found not only a home in which he might live and die, but here the orphan boy found a Heavenly Father, whom he dearly loved, and who sent his spirit to write the lineaments of a Saviour's image on his soul, and at length completed the celestial portrait, without spot or wrinkle, in Heaven. Thus with no earthly father's arms around him, and no mother's hand in his, in simple child-like trust and faith, he gave his little hand to the messenger, and as a weary and absent child seeks its father's house, went home.

We are indebted to Dr. Knight (who has charge of the Institution for the relief of the ruptured and crippled in New York) for his care of three of our children who were lame. Two of them remained under his care for six months, and were greatly benefitted. The other was there two months, and returned cured.

The standard of scholarship is equal to that of any public school. The Misses Horton as teachers being not only faithful, but possessed of unusual ability, and so devoted and untiring in their efforts that they accomplish more than we can reasonably expect. The case of a Swedish boy is worthy of notice. He entered the Asylum Oct. 30th, 1868. At that time he could not speak a word of English, and did not know his letters (although he could read and write in his own language.) He can now read in any ordinary book, writes a beautiful hand, and is studying arithmetic, geography, etc. Mr. C. B. Pierson's services as Superintendent of the Sabbath-school are all that can be desired, and we gratefully appreciate his labors, and trust there will be many stars in his crown of rejoicing after he shall have passed beyond the praise of man. Mr. D. P. Horton adds to his other charities that of teaching our children music. He largely shares in our gratitude. The Matron gives satisfaction in the usual discharge of her duties. Mrs B. W. Delanater, our efficient and loved Treasurer for ten years past, has tendered her resignation, which was accepted with the deepest regret. We feel her loss to be almost irreparable, and cannot fail to include in our gratitude her worthy husband, who has rendered such valuable co-operation in all things pertaining to the interest of the Society, but more particularly in his marked success in obtaining donations for the Building Fund. To our eminent Counsel, A. H. Dana, Esq., we present our thanks for his ability, for protecting and advancing our interest. Mr. McMurray, of Fulton Street, presented a mantle clock. Mr. Prentiss donated twelve dozen hats for the children last winter. On Christmas, Thanksgiving, and New Year's day, the children partook of poultry dinners. Dr. Van Dyke's Church paid for one, Mr. Bogle and friends for another, and the Managers for the third. The children all received presents on Christmas. The Infant Class of Dr. Buddington's Church, (under the care of Mrs. Chatfield,) presented each child with a book on Christmas week. We tender our heartfelt thanks to Drs. S. Fleet, Speir, and J. W. Hyde for their gratuitous services, always rendered with pleasure and promptness. To all donors of money and useful articles, we desire to express our gratitude. A legacy from the estate of John Reed, per A. L. Reed, Esq., $500; from the estate of Rachel Berry, $470; and from that of Jonas Smith, per Charles E. Jayne, Esq., $1,880. Donation from F. Marquand, $1,000; C. H. Shipman, $1,000; H. B. Claflin, $1,000; A. W. Benson, $500; J. W. Mason, $500, and many sums from $250 and less for building. These subscriptions have been received of late; others have been acknowledged previously. Donation from Annie E. Waters, $100; R. P. Buck, $100; New York Stock Exchange, $100; the late Mrs. F. Dorrance, per Mrs. H. K. Corning, $100; F. Marquand, $100; C. H. Shipman, $100; S. B. Chittenden, $100, besides several like sums from the friends of the Fair. The Fair, together with the proceeds of three children's fairs, netted $3,100. Williamsburg shares very largely in our charity, (we having large numbers of children from there,) and we greatly desire that all its churches should be represented. Private effort on this behalf has proved unsuccessful, and we hope this public appeal will not pass unheeded. Some of the Managers have done their duty well in collecting for the Building Fund; and it is of much importance that all should be active in this matter, as the expense on the land is yearly adding to its cost. The present building is utterly inadequate to our wants. The necessary repairs demand a large outlay, which fact renders it imperative that we should be unceasing in our efforts to obtain large subscriptions at once, in order to enable us to commence the new House. It is already known to the public that we have purchased desirable lots, have been favored with numerous and generous subscriptions, but may not be equally well known that still a very large amount is requisite to authorize the spade to upturn the first sod, upon which shall be reared a Temple of Charity; one which shall feed, clothe, and educate God's little ones, and rear them for the Father's house of many mansions. To our former patrons, to those whose hearts have not already glowed and expanded in charity for the Orphans, we appeal. Give us; give cheerfully; give generously ; give now. Every dollar will be brightened with Heaven's own radiance, and should bear the inspired inscription : " In as much as ye have done it unto the least of these ye have done it unto me." Would that we could ask and ingather the multitudes whose life designates the Arabs of the streets. Oh ! that we could extend to every orphan and outcast in this city the inestimable privileges of this educational home. Would that such a speedy and munificent response might be made to this annual appeal that there would be ample room within its walls for the many little ones perishing without. With such a place can we fail ? A child's want once inspired a poor barister before the English bar to make such an eloquent and effective plea that at one stroke he won fame and fortune. Shall this Institution then, poor but eloquent, pleading its noble, disinterested, Christ-like cause before this tribunal of benevolence and philanthropy, irrespective of sect or creed, and having the same inspiration for its effort, shall it not succeed ? When Lord Erskine was asked the secret of his success, he uttered this touching memorable reply : " I felt my little children tugging at my gown, and saying, ' Father, Oh ! father, now is the time to give us bread ! ' " Just so with this Institution. These Managers feel the little hands of orphanage literally pulling at their gowns, and in a language more eloquent than words—in poverty, and squalor, and cold, and hunger, homelessness, and tears, do they cry, " Oh ! now, now is the time to give us bread." Give it, and you shall win—not fame, for the laurel withers on the heated brow ; not fortune, for fortune has wings—but win the blessing of him who is ready to perish—the blessing of the God of the fatherless, of the God who loves a cheerful giver, of the God who says " whosoever giveth to the poor lendeth to the Lord."
